How to use a Warp Pipe Pass

What does the time listed on my Warp Pipe Pass mean?

- While you can arrive at any time during your entry window, we recommend arriving no earlier than 15 minutes before your entry window opens.
- I arrived early for my Warp Pipe Pass window. Can I get in early?

- No. Please visit the booth during the designated time stated on your Warp Pipe Pass.

What if I missed my Warp Pipe Pass arrival window? Can I still play that game?

- If you miss your time slot, we cannot guarantee that your Warp Pipe Pass will be valid for the entry line.

Will I be able to leave the booth and re-enter later?

- Your Warp Pipe Pass will be considered redeemed once it's been scanned at entry. You will not be able to use it for the Warp Pipe Pass line again.

Can I cancel my Warp Pipe Pass reservation if I can no longer use it?

- We encourage you to cancel your reservation if you're not able to attend. That will allow others the opportunity to secure a pass.

What if I'm not able to pull up the Warp Pipe Pass due to poor internet access?

- When you register for a Warp Pipe Pass, we will send your pass to the email address associated with your Nintendo Account. We recommend that you print out this pass or add it to your Apple Wallet in case there is no internet connectivity.
- It is recommended you ready your QR code before arriving.

I can't find my email with my Warp Pipe Pass. What can I do?

- Visit the My Passes/Tickets tab of the event site and login with your Nintendo Account to access your Pass(es): <https://experience.nintendo.com/#/my-tickets-passes>
- We will also send a copy of the pass to the email address associated with the Nintendo Account. Be sure to check your email inbox's Junk, Spam, or Promotions folder.

Do I need to print out my Warp Pipe Pass?

- It isn't required. You can show your printed or electronic pass to a staff member.
- If possible, we do recommend printing your ticket as a backup.

With my Warp Pipe Pass, can I bring a guest(s) with me to enter?

- A Warp Pipe Pass represents a pass for the recipient only. Each attendee over 7 years old is required to have a Warp Pipe Pass to attend. Children aged 6 or younger do not require their own Warp Pipe Pass to enter with a parent or guardian that has one.

Can I make changes to the names on my reservation, or can I give my pass to a friend or family member?

Warp Pipe Passes are non-transferrable. Passes are one-time-use only.

Is this event ADA accessible?

Yes.
